

TURKEY STRIKES HARDEST BLOW IN WAR WITH ITALY

Every Italian Ordered to Leave Country Within Twenty-four Hours.

ROME, Nov. 15.—That Turkey is in no mood to accept mediation or stop the war with Italy was shown today when the grand vizier issued a sweeping order that every Italian within Turkish boundaries must be expelled from the country within twenty-four hours.

Every Italian found in Turkey after the twenty-four hours have passed will be considered a prisoner of war and held in a Turkish fortress until peace is declared.

The sweeping order is one of the severest blows Italy has suffered since the beginning of the war, and will mean a loss of millions of dollars to her citizens in Turkey.

Despite the denial of Secretary of State Knox that the United States Government was considering the possibility of intervention in the Turkey-Italian imbroglio, the Milan Secolo declares today, emphatically, that the American Government, through President Taft, is favorably considering Italy's war position to the world powers that peace mediation would be acceptable to the Quirinal.

Teachers to Be Guests Tonight at Food Show

Tomorrow is to be "White House Day," and Friday "Dimpled Darlin' Day" at the National Food Show. Tonight the school teachers will be guests, to be admitted free. The distribution of tickets has been placed in charge of Secretary Harry O. Hine, and he has been doing a rushing business.

The management announced today it expects President Taft as a guest of the show tomorrow. Five hundred packages of White House tea are to be given away then, and 5,000 packages of Elk Horn cheese.

Friday the baby show for all children under three years old is to be held, and silver cups are to be given as prizes.

The show management reports that the offer of $25 to the young people who would consent to be married there has been practically accepted.

OHIO EXPECTED TO BE STORM CENTER OF EARLY CAMPAIGN

Both Republicans and Democrats to Make Strong Fight There.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 15.—That Ohio is to be made the storm center of early activities of both the Democratic and Republican parties for the campaign of 1912 is indicated here today in the work of politicians, together with the announcement that the Progressive Republican movement within the State will probably be met by a big organization rally here early in January, featured by a big banquet with President Taft as guest of honor.

Standpat Republican leaders point to the fact that four years ago, when Mr. Taft was a candidate for the Presidential nomination he was the guest of honor at the annual McKinley Day banquet here, and that his campaign for nomination was launched at that time.

They believe his second campaign should be started here.

Political heat throughout the State is already about ten points above normal. "Deals" between John R. McLean and W. R. Hearst to prevent the Democratic delegation being instructed for Harmon are included in the early gossip while the Progressives are working night and day in completing organizations to fight Mr. Taft and bring support to Senator La Follette.

Dr. Davidson Declares Schools Are Broadening

Declaring the three "R's" had broadened so that now they include much more than reading, writing, and arithmetic; urging the development of schools as social centers and emphasizing moral instruction and physical culture teaching in schools, Dr. W. M. Davidson made the principal address before nearly 400 parents at the organization of the Maury-Edmonds Parent-Teachers' Association.

"The old time austerity and solemnity that enveloped the school room is out of date," Dr. Davidson said. "Today comradeship and companionship mark the successful school. The school room is a democracy."

Dr. Davidson's address was followed by a characteristic talk by A. T. Stuart, his predecessor, and now director of intermediate instruction. Mr. Stuart gave some reminiscences from the days when the Maury School was situated in the "northeast commons," and the Edmonds School had not been built.

Welcome addresses were made by Henry P. Blair, a member of the Board of Education, and by Dr. E. G. Kimball, supervising principal. Mrs. Emily F. Barnes sang, and William Weber contributed a piano solo. Later he accompanied Edward Weber in a violin solo.

Sweet's Home Robbed.

Parker H. Sweet reported to the police of the Third precinct yesterday that his home at 720 Twenty-fifth street northwest was entered during the absence of members of the family last night, and a Turkish rug, a child's savings bank containing $4, and a bank book were stolen. Sweet said he thought the house had been entered with a duplicate key.

ALIENS, ATTRACTED TO CITIES, NEEDED AS FARM LABORERS

State Immigration Agents Will Discuss Methods to Divert Interest.

"Of the half-million alien farm hands who reached our shores last year, 80 per cent remained in the large cities, where they are not wanted, and only 15 per cent went to the farms of the country, the only place where they really could prosper," said J. B. Haynes, of Omaha, Neb., who reached Washington today as one of the delegates to the conference of State immigration agents.

Mr. Haynes, who is stopping at the Ebbitt House, will deliver an address before the delegates. Asked concerning the situation in the Middle West States regarding the question of farm laborers, Mr. Haynes said:

"The mid-West States are losing agricultural producers. State census bulletins show that many of the counties of Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas have suffered a diminution of rural population. The people are becoming alarmed about it, yet those States are doing nothing officially to attract newcomers.

They, as well as other States, are sorely in need of aliens, or foreign born farmhands. Last year more than 400,000 of this class of aliens arrived at American ports.

"The over-crowded cities don't want them. They are needed to cultivate the vast areas of uncultivated land, and as farmhands in the older States. My theory of the case is that they cannot be moved to the lands until Federal or the State governments lend their influence to induce them to do so. That will be the subject of my address before the conference."

Babies' Deaths Costly.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Dr. Abraham Jacob, speaking on the protection of child life, asserted that half a million babies who die annually, cause an economic loss of $200,000,000 or $400 each.

Says Loan Would Be Ruin to Honduras

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 15.—"If the proposed loan through the Morgan interests, which Secretary Knox would thrust upon Honduras is effected, it will mean ruin for Honduras," declared Juan E. Parades, former special minister of the Honduras government to Washington, appointed to negotiate the Morgan loan of $10,000,000.

Senor Parades said he resigned because of what he believed would be an injustice to his country—the loan as endorsed by Secretary Knox. He said it was not a loan but a speculation; that being guaranteed by the United States, it would mean that Honduras would become a protectorate of this country.
